Dear Students,

You are the leaders of our future, destined to shape the world for generations to come. It is our fervent hope that you will embrace the responsibility of guiding our children, influencing the direction of our society, regardless of your role and wherever you find yourself in this interconnected global community.

Your leadership, rooted in unwavering values, a clear sense of purpose, and strong self-identity will be the driving force that propels us towards a brighter future

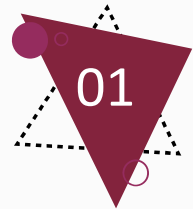

Why Values Matter

Values are important because they provide a framework for guiding our thoughts, behaviours, and decisions. They serve as the foundation for our beliefs and principles, shaping our character and influencing how we interact with the world

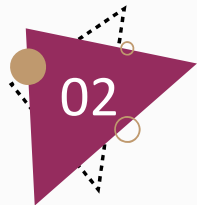

Values are a fundamental aspect of human existence, they provide a sense of purpose, ethics, and identity, contributing to our overall well-being and the cohesiveness of societies and communities

SERDANG: A gang of youths has been using social media and public holidays to promote their sex and drug parties in the Klang Valley these past months.

And for as little as a RM50 cover charge, partygoers can get their hands on an assortment of drugs and alcohol.

But on Deepavali day police raided a party held in one of the units in a condominium in Seri Kembangan.

At the 3.45am raid, following a tip-off from the public, police detained 45 youths, including nine secondary school students, aged between 14 and 25.

The suspects were either high on drugs or alcohol when police apprehended them.

Police also nabbed the party organisers during the raid and seized several types of drugs inside the premises, including ketamin and ecstasy pills.

Serdang DCPD Asst Comm Ismail Bostan said 33 of the suspects were tested positive for ganja and methamphetamine.

He said investigations revealed the group had organised multiple sex parties in Klang Valley in past months.

ACP Ismail said partygoers would have to pay extra if they wanted drugs.

"We believe some of them engaged in sexual activities when they got high."

Police have remanded all the suspects for four days to facilitate investigations.

He said police investigations also revealed that the organisers paid RM390 to rent the apartment

Department head Asst Comm Fadil Ahmad said the sexual predators known to the victims were usually the father or stepfather, grandfather, older brother, babysitter's husband or son, neighbour and mother's boyfriend.

He said the statistics also showed an increase in the number of cases, to 33 cases from 287 over the same period last year.

Of the cases reported this year, he said 201 involved children below the age of 18 with the perpetrators having been prosecuted, with 82 cases labelled "No Further Action" and 51 still pending.

"We expect the number to increase further with the approaching school holidays."

"We hope for cooperation from parents to always monitor their children's movement and actions, especially when accessing social media," he said at the Selangor CID Media Talk here yesterday.

ACP Fadil said that among the factors contributing to sexual crimes against children were social media influence, technological advancement, risk-taking attitude of parents towards their children's activities and peer group influence.

He said the victims or witnesses could contact any police station nearest to them to report sexual crimes or to seek assistance.

To facilitate recording of statements by victims of child sexual crimes, he said police had set up the Child Interview Centre at all contingents manned by trained officers.

Six quizzed over Bible-giving at school

BUKIT MERTAJAM: Police have recorded statements from six individuals, including a woman, who are believed to be involved in the distribution of the Bible in front of a secondary school here.

Selangor Perti Tengah district police chief Asst Comm Nik Ros Azhan Nik Abdul Hamid said the

for a night.
He said they are investigating the case for drug possession.

"Integrity, #Synergy, #Excellence and Sustainable" are the core values that we as a student implemented in Universiti Teknologi Malaysia \(UTM\). Hence, it shaped me into a well-rounded scholar. 🎓 Frankly, speaking in front of hundred people on that day was quite intimidating. However, I was delighted to have the #opportunity to meet and share insight with #successful people across #Malaysia. 🙌

“I wanted to grow as a person. I didn’t want to know humility or compassion and empathy only as abstract concepts, I wanted to live them. I didn’t want discipline, character, and integrity to just be things I read about. I wanted to live them.”

UTM CORE VALUES: ISES

SYNERGY

Synergy instills team spirit, togetherness, inclusivity, collegiality, respect, humility, cooperation and collaboration.

INTEGRITY

Integrity calls for adherence to sound moral values and strong ethical principles.

EXCELLENCE

Excellence towards high performance and delivery will result in outstanding and remarkable achievement in all aspects.

SUSTAINABILITY

Sustainability is reflected in the holistic drive by the campus community in integrating and balancing economic, social and environmental sphere.

■ Integrity

Integrity calls for adherence to sound moral values and strong ethical principles. This noble virtue must be internalized in our heart and soul, and manifested in our loyalty, character, conduct, deeds and action with wisdom and trustworthiness.

■ Characteristics of People with Integrity

Integrity is a trait that everyone should strive for. These traits and behaviours will help anyone move towards becoming a person with true integrity. Of course, people with true integrity do these things because it's the right thing – not to be praised for their integrity! That is part of the beauty of someone who lives a life of integrity.

■ Characteristics of People with Integrity

- Trustworthy
- Responsible and accountable
- Truthful, admit mistake
- Selfless, caring
- Sincere and honest
- Not fake, Genuine
- Respect everyone and 'everything'
- Manifesting humility
- Always credible
- Conveying true kindness

■ Synergy

Synergy instills team spirit, togetherness, inclusivity, collegiality, respect, humility, cooperation and collaboration. It also breeds selflessness, resulting from care and concern for others above self, while embracing diversity and appreciating differences

■ Synergy

- Jointly set and agree the vision and purpose of the team
- Agree the way the team will operate to achieve its goals
- Commit to succeed, often going the 'extra mile' to reach personal targets and support other team members to achieve theirs
- Communicate freely, honestly and continually, offering and receiving communication in a positive spirit
- Trust in each other to deliver what they promise
- Maintain positive attitudes, providing support and encouragement where needed

■ Synergy

- All pull their weight, based on individual strengths, and (crucially) pulling in the same direction
- Commit to consensus building and effective, speedy, conflict resolution
- Monitor performance against targets and commit to seeking remedial action where necessary.
- Strive to achieve high performance and high standards
- Enjoy and celebrate being part of the team
- Respect and celebrate diversity – idealism, racial and social background

■ Excellence

Excellence towards high performance and delivery will result in outstanding and remarkable achievement in all aspects of teaching, learning, research, innovation, commercialization and provision of services.

■ Characteristics, Habits of Highly Excellent People

- Have the end in mind
- Clear goals, stay focus, do what you love
- Work harder than anyone else
- Make use of every moment, punctual and highly discipline
- Take action to achieve your results
- Continuously upgrade yourself
- Strive for #1 in what you do, never enough 'attitude', always challenge the boundary
- Balanced life
- Growth mindset

■ Sustainability

Sustainability is reflected in the holistic drive by the campus community in integrating and balancing economic, social and environmental spheres to meet the current needs without compromising the ability to exist and survive continuously

■ Sustainability Mindset

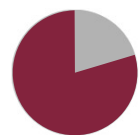

Awareness of the state of the planet, the interconnectedness of what happens, the personal contribution to the problems are some important factors fuelling the desire to champion sustainability as a personal 'cause'.

Good Values

- Good values are the moral and ethical principles that guide our actions and decisions. They include honesty, kindness, empathy, integrity, and many others.
- Living by good values means making choices that are aligned with these principles, even when it's challenging. It's about doing what's right, not just what's easy or convenient.
- When we live by good values, we contribute positively to our own well-being and that of the people around us. It's a way to build trust, respect, and meaningful relationships.

Sincerity of the Heart

- Sincerity of the heart refers to the authenticity and genuineness of our intentions and actions. It means that we act in a way that reflects our true values and beliefs, not just for show or to please others.
- When our heart is sincere, our actions become a genuine expression of who we are. This authenticity can be felt by others, and it fosters trust and deeper connections in our relationships.
- Living with a sincere heart means that we are not driven by ulterior motives or a desire for external validation but by a genuine commitment to our values and principles
